Binde-McKee

MARS HILL — Jaime Elizabeth Binde and Kenneth Charles McKee Jr., both of Asheville, were married on Saturday, Oct. 20 in Broyhill Chapel on the campus of Mars Hill College, in Mars Hill. The Rev. Tommy Bratton of First Baptist Church of Asheville officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Ms. Cathy Adams, of Asheville, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Binde, of Buffalo, N.Y. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Betty Binde, of Hallstead, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Adams, of Asheville, and the late William H. Binde.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McKee, of Lake Waccamaw. He is the grandson of Inez McKee, of Whiteville, the late Charles McKee and the late Luther and Irene Neville.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Lena Burns Richards, friend of the bride, of Candler. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Heather Woody, sister of the groom, of Whiteville, Ms. Cynthia Haynes, of Coatesville, Pa., and Mrs. Stephanie Neal, of Altus, Okla., both close friends of the bride. Flower girl was Claire Graham, cousin of the bride.

Best man was Brandon Rodgers, friend of the groom, of Asheville. Groomsmen were Jason Binde, brother of the bride, of Fort Gordon, Ga., Jason Coleman, of San Diego, and Jordan Schrader, of Raleigh, friends of the groom.

Ms. Laura Martin, of Asheville, read a poem during the service. Music was provided by pianist Patrick Boland.

The grandparents and parents were escorted to the song, "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," while the bridesmaids walked to "Somewhere, Over the Rainbow." The bride walked to "Canon in D Major." Processional music included "All You Need is Love," followed by "Linus & Lucy."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Redway Dining Room, on the campus of Mars Hill College. Chartwell's staff catered the reception. The cake was provided by Cakes by Jane. All floral arrangements were created by the bride's mother.

The bride is a graduate of Erwin High School, and received a bachelor of science in computer science from Mars Hill College. She is the online editor for the Asheville Citizen-Times.

The groom is a graduate of East Columbus High School, in Lake Waccamaw, and received a bachelor of science in English education from Appalachian State University. He is also a National Board Certified Teacher. He is a language arts teacher at Enka Middle School.

The couple honeymooned in the Bahamas, and will reside in Asheville.
